

First Baptist Church's Inclement Weather Policy

Sunday Morning Services:

1. If a decision is made on Saturday to cancel the Sunday Morning Worship and Sunday Bible Fellowship classes, then a call will be made to the local news stations and our church will be listed among the closings during the 10:00pm news broadcast. We will also list the cancellation on the website at www.fbcclaremore.com
2. Conditions may lead us to cancel the morning Bible Study Fellowships but will proceed with the Morning Worship at 10:15am. This will be posted on the website and on the local stations as "10:15am service only".

Sunday Evening Services:

1. If a decision is made on Saturday to cancel the Sunday evening services, then a call will be made to the local news stations and our church will be listed among the closings during the 10:00pm news broadcast. We will list the cancellation as "all activities".
2. If ice and/or snow is eminent for the afternoon, we will give cancellation information at the end of the Morning Worship Service. It will also be posted at www.fbcclaremore.com and on the local news stations.
3. Sunday Evening Service may be cancelled even when daytime temperatures climb above freezing due to the possibility of the parking lots re-freezing at night.

Wednesday Evening Events:

1. If it begins to snow or ice on a Wednesday, a decision will be made by 2:00pm. We will list the cancellation on the website at www.fbcclaremore.com and inform the local news stations. We will list the cancellation as "all activities".
